

- Important: To avoid adverse tax consequences on the Account transfer, the new Beneficiary must be a Member of the Family of the existing Beneficiary, as defined in the CollegeAdvantage 529 Direct Savings Plan Offering Statement and Participation Agreement. If the new Beneficiary is not an Eligible Family Member, the change will be considered a non-qualified distribution resulting in the filing of IRS Form 1099-Q, which means that it will be subject to both State of Ohio and federal income tax and a 10% federal penalty tax on any earnings.

Forms can be downloaded from our website at www.CollegeAdvantage.com, or you can call us to order any form—or request assistance in completing this form—at 1-800-AFFORD-IT (233-6734) Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Eastern Time.

I understand that the value of my account will vary depending on market conditions and the performance of the Investment Option(s) I select. Regular investing does not ensure a profit or protect against a loss. The amount actually available for withdrawal will depend on the investment performance of the investment options chosen and may not provide the qualified higher education expenses for my Beneficiary.
